DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Paris People Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. J. W. B. Lee, College Hill, Carlisle, Ky., says: "I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I would never use any other remedy for any trouble arising from inactive kidneys. I have sufficient proof to thus assert myself, as I have used them off and on for two years and they have never failed to give me the best results. I first took them for a severe backache and a distressing kidney weakness and they quickly cured me. Since then I have been constantly telling others about their merit, as I believe that for kidney complaint they are unequalled."

Plenty of proof like this from Paris people. Call at J. A. Wilson's drug store and ask what customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Worrying Our Sin.

"Americanitis" is the great disease of the people of this country," said the Rev. W. F. Wakeham, of Poughkeepsie, Conn., on "The Sin of Worrying" in the Greenwich First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning.

"Americanitis," he explained, was the act of worrying over everything. "In France licentiousness is sapping the life of its people, in England drunkenness is working its ruin and in America worrying is killing the country."

The housewife preparing courses for the table worries for something new; the lady of fashion worries because a hat is too large or because it is stylish and not becoming. A merchant worries over finances and takes his worry home to bed with him, thereby depriving his family for what pleasure there is in seeing him.

"It is worry over this and worry over that continually, and the country is rapidly becoming peevish and fretful and crimes are being committed continually by the men and women who worry."

Death Was On His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world. Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. June

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

—Tobacco growers belonging to the American Society of Equity will hold a rally at Georgetown, Ohio, on July 4. An invitation has been extended to Miss Alice Lloyd to make an address.

—Col. J. E. Delph, who has been a land broker in Lexington for nearly half a century, said Tuesday that since the passing of the anti betting bill in New York and the furtherance of the no-crop movement in the tobacco war, the price of farm lands in Central Kentucky has decreased 25 per cent.

—Too much care cannot be taken in the handling of hog shipments during the hot weather. Shippers should not load hogs hot, and care should be taken not to overload the capacity of the cars. A great many hogs are arriving dead at the Chicago stock yards, according to reports, owing to the excessive heat.

—A small crowd at Cythiana Monday. About 275 head of cattle were offered, five cent being the top price. Good horses brought $110 to $150; plugs from $35 to $50 and milch cows, $27.50 to $35. Forty-two shares of Leesburg Bank stock, par share $25 each, sold at $27.25. A house and lot on Vine street sold for $800 and fifty acres of land near Kelat sold at about $10 an acre.

—About 300 head of cattle were quickly disposed of at Winchester court Monday. There were no lambs or sheep at the stock yards. The top price for cattle was $4.50 for some extra steers. Among the sales reported were the following: John Daniel sold to Jacob Bachman, eleven 450 pound steers at 4 cents; W. E. Little sold to Jacob Bachman two heifers, 750 pounds each, at 4 cents; J. B. Crawford sold to the same party two heifers at 4 cents; John Daniel sold to J. Harvey Hunt five heifers of 325 pounds at 4 cents; W. E. Little sold to J. H. Hunt sixteen 685-pound steers at 4 cents; Jonas Weil bought of J. B. Crawford seven 525 pound steers at 4 cents.

Kentucky's Timber Supply.

J. S. Holmes, of the United States Forest service, arrived in Pineville last Saturday evening from Washington, D. C. He will resume the work of making a forest survey of the State of Kentucky begun in the summer of 1907 in the more eastern counties of the State.

The survey is the result of co-operation between the State and the Forest Service, and is evidence of an awakening interest in the subject of forest resources. The survey will show, by counties, the present rate of cutting and the amount of standing timber.

Special attention will be given to cut-over land with the view of recommending conservative methods of logging, and such care of the forest lands of the State as to insure the greatest possible yield of timber for time to come.

Radical Action Taken.

Eld. T. J. Spencer, pastor, and the officers of the Central Christian church, the largest and most fashionable church of that denomination in Lexington, after the services Sunday night submitted to the congregation a proposition that lukewarm members who do not regularly attend or contribute to the church shall no longer have the right and privilege of being members in good standing, and shall not be given letters entitling them to full fellowship to churches in other communities, but shall be placed on a probationary list from which they may be taken back into full fellowship, should they show a tendency to overcome their delinquencies. As far as known, this is the most radical action ever proposed by a church in Kentucky, or possibly elsewhere in the United States and on account of its far reaching effect and importance, the board of church officers who submitted the proposition suggested that a vote upon it should not be taken by the congregation until next autumn, thus giving full opportunity for its consideration.

A Wonderful Bird.

The most wonderful bird flight noted is the migratory achievement of the Virginia plover, which leaves its haunts in North America and, taking a course down the Atlantic, reaches the coast of Brazil in one unbroken flight of fifteen hours, covering a distance of over 3,000 miles at the rate of four miles a minute.

Sherman Ill.

Representative James S. Sherman, of New York, the Republican nominee for Vice President, is suffering from gall stones and was taken to a Cleveland hospital. It is possible that an operation may be necessary and several distinguished specialists have been summoned from New York. The patient is restless and his temperature ranges between 102 and 103 degrees while his heart action is disquieting. The physicians hope that an operation may be avoided and Mr. Sherman telegraphed Secretary Taft that he expected to meet him at Washington next Wednesday.

Doctors Held Up.

While Drs. S. L. Helm and W. O. Bullock, Jr., of Lexington, were speeding along the Tate's creek pike Tuesday night, in response to a hurry call from a sick patient at the Fayette county infirmary, they were suddenly ordered to halt, and the headlight of the machine revealed a double-barreled shotgun ready to fire, in the hands of a sturdy farmer, who sat in a spring wagon containing his wife and several men.

"Stop right where you are and pull over to the roadside, or I will kill you like I'd kill a rabbit," was the instruction given the physicians as they slowed down in response to the command to halt. The order was promptly obeyed and the automobile was taken to one side of the road and held stationary until the party in the wagon had passed by and was safe beyond the danger of their horse being frightened. The physicians claim that they were not recklessly driving the machine or going at an excessively rapid pace, although they had been summoned to come to the patient as quickly as possible.
